The Swiss and the Pope.

The old quarrel between the Swiss Government and the Vatican has culminated, at last, in the termination of diplomatic relations between Switzerland and the Pope. The original cause of difficulty was a question of civil and ecclesiastical juris-diction. The Swiss Government held that the attempt to raise Pastor Mermillod to a higher position, without the approval of the civil authorities, was illegal and not to be tolerated. The Papal authorities persisted; a direct issue was made; and as the Swiss Government was firm, there was nothing left for Rome but a surrender or a diplomatic rupture. This last has

THE ICE GORGE AT MEMPHIS.

Heavy Loss to Steamboat Men.

The breaking of the ice in the Mississippi has already resulted in the loss of many steamboats, and several hundred thousand bushels of coal. The latest from Memphis on Saturday night says:

The river is still rising up to the present writing, 9:30 P. M. It has risen three feet since 6 P. M. yesterday. The rise has bloken a heavy mass of ice in the eddy from the mouth of Wolf river to Jefferson street loose from the shore. It is now feared if the rise continues this immense field of ice, with the Dry Docks and several steamers and a large number of barges, will be swept down against the boats at the levee with irresistable force. The steamer A. J. White, succeeded in getting out this evening, and crossed over to the bar, where the Yeager lies. The Arlington dropped into the vacancy caused by her departure. The James Howard and the Cit, of Augusta have worked in nearer shore. All the boats that have fuel have steam up. Great danger is apprehended from the field of ice referred to above. The
